The Great Migration House Descriptions

Household A — Mississippi Delta sharecroppers

Your home and crops have been flooded. Your family has relatives in Chicago. The landowner wants laborers to return for the next crop.

Household B — Delta landowning family

Your land has been damaged, but federal flood-control investment is expected to increase protection in the future.

Household C — Louisiana family with relatives in Houston

Your community has experienced flooding and employment disruption. Family members elsewhere tell you work and housing may be available.

Household D — Agricultural laborer with no distant family network

Your home is damaged, but almost everyone you know lives locally.
